

Democracy in the Digital Constellation Interdisciplinary Perspectives

5th and 6th September 2022
Weizenbaum Institute for the Networked Society
Hardenbergstraße 32, 10623 Berlin

Monday, 5th September

12:30 - 13:00	Arrival and Registration (Coffee & Snacks)
13:00 - 13:15	Welcome & Introduction
13:15 - 15:15	Reconfiguration I: Democratic Governance Jeanette Hofmann / Thorsten Thiel Imagining Democracy through the Lens of Learning Machines Vincent August Transparency and Openness: Social Imaginaries of Regulation in the Networked Age Robert Seyfert Algorithms as Regulatory Objects
15:15 - 15:45	Coffee Break
15:45 - 17:45	Reconfiguration II: Constitutional Law and Fundamental Rights Niklas Rakowski Applying Freedom of Assembly's Binding Force to Private Platforms Giovanni De Gregorio Digital Constitutionalism: Reframing Rights and Powers Hannah Ruschemeier Collective Dimensions of Digitalisation as a Challenge for Fundamental Rights
19:00	Dinner Terzomodo Grolmanstraße 28 10623 Berlin

Tuesday, 6th September

09:00 - 11:00

Reconfiguration III: Public Sphere

Karoline Helbig

The Digital Constellation's Impact on Deliberative Systems

Annie Waldherr

Digitized Public Spheres: Affordances and Public Dynamics

Jan-Felix Schrape

Levels of Public Communication

11.00 - 11.30

Coffee Break

11:30 - 13:30

Reconfiguration IV: Participation and Representation

Sebastian Berg

Datafication as engine of political representation

Paula Diehl

The Five Star Movement, Grillo, and the Problem of Representation

Rahel Süß

Empowering Digital Democracy

13:30

Farewell & Lunch